

Please read these notes before completing the form

Filling in the form

- Please read the leaflet 'Civil legal aid - information for applicants' which your solicitor gave you with this form. It is also available from the Leaflets section of www.slab.org.uk.
- Complete the form in capital letters using black ink and put an 'x' in the relevant box. If a question doesn't apply to you, you must answer it by putting an 'x' in the 'No' or 'Not applicable' box.
- Please read the notes everywhere you see the information symbol. These give helpful information on completing the form.
- We use the information you give to decide if you qualify financially for legal aid. Give us and your solicitor full and honest answers so we can deal with your application quickly.

Documents and evidence to send with your application

- When you see the documents symbol shown on the right, it tells you about documents you need to attach as evidence. Please read the notes for details of the evidence you need to provide.
- Please use the checklist on the last page to make sure you attach all the documents needed for your application. We give you details of the correct kinds of documents to send.
- If you have a spouse or partner, you need to send documents relating to their financial circumstances too.
- You must send us evidence of all money you receive and expenses you pay. For example:
 - If you get a state benefit - a copy of any letter telling you how much you are entitled to from the agency paying the benefit (such as the Department for Work and Pensions, Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs).
 - If you have a mortgage or pay rent - evidence such as bank statements to show how much you pay.
- Your salary must be verified by way of payslips or a Statement of Earnings form, completed by your employers. However if your recent bank statements show the income and expenses you tell us about in this form, this will usually be enough evidence. If you don't send the correct evidence we can't deal with your case.

We cannot deal with your application without the documents requested so it's important that you send these.

If we need to write to ask you for documents this will delay our decision.

Please send copies of your documents and not originals.

Please don't use a highlighter on any documents you send us.

Returning your form

- If you were given this form by your solicitor, please return it to them with all the evidence requested. If we need to write to ask you for documents this will delay our decision.
- If you were sent the form or were asked to complete it by the Scottish Legal Aid Board, please return it with all the evidence requested to:
Scottish Legal Aid Board, Thistle House, 91 Haymarket Terrace, Edinburgh EH12 5HE
- You can also email us your form. Send it to: general@slab.org.uk

Help with this form

- If you need any help with this form you should contact the Financial Assessment Unit of the Legal Aid Information Line.

Legal Aid
Information Line

0131 240 2082

Read these notes as you fill out the form.

You will only have this if you've already been granted legal aid.

Find this on your most recent P60 or other forms from Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs.

If you have a middle name enter it here too.

We need a telephone number where you can usually be contacted between 9am and 5pm.

You need to tell us if you have a spouse or partner, if you're living with them, or if you are separated.

If you're away from home, eg in prison or for work, this does not count as separated, unless you consider the relationship to be over.

You do not have to give details if your spouse or partner is your opponent in this case.

(but not wedding or engagement rings), antiques or items bought for investment purposes.

Read these notes as you fill out the form.

If you are in prison and have a financial interest in any property, you must declare this, even if the property was your main dwelling before your imprisonment.

Please give your best estimate of the market value of your property. Don't worry if you don't think this is exact.

All endowment policies have a value that the company will lend against the policy. We will let you know if you need to contact your policy provider for this information.

The date you realised you would need civil legal aid to raise or defend a court action is, for example, the date you separated from your partner or spouse.

H4. Do you or your partner own or part-own any property, land or timeshare other than the property you live in now?

Yes

No

You need to show us evidence of the value of the property and any loans secured over it.

If you said Yes above, give details of the property:

Address	Market value	Amount of any loan/mortgage	What share do you or partner own?	How do you use it? (rent it out/holidays)	Who lives there?

H5. Do you or your partner have life assurance or endowment policies not linked to your mortgage? Yes No

If you said Yes above, give details:

When was the policy taken out?	What is the annual premium?

H6. Does anyone, other than your opponent in the case, owe you or your partner any money? Yes No

H7. Have you or your partner received, or are you likely to receive, anything from the will of someone who has died recently? Yes No

H8. Are you or your partner entitled to any money from a trust fund? Yes No

H9. Have you or your partner been made redundant, or are you or your partner about to be made redundant? Yes No

H10. Have you or your partner transferred, sold or given any money, property or possessions to anybody, including any company or body, since you became aware these proceedings were likely to take place? Yes No

H11. Have you or your partner bought anything costing more than £2,000, or paid out more than this for anything in the last 12 months? Yes No

H12. Do you or your partner have any other capital or other assets which have not been included in this section? Yes No

If you answered Yes to any of the questions above, please give details:

Question number	Details

You need to show us evidence of the value of any other capital or other assets you tell us about here.

H13. When did you first realise you should consult a solicitor about this matter?

H14. Have you reduced your income or capital, including transferring money or property into someone else's ownership or control, since the date you have given above in H.13?

Yes No

H15. If so, how much?

H16. If so, what did you or your partner use this money for?

Read these notes as you fill out the form.

Section I - Other information

If you ran out of space elsewhere in the form you can continue your answer here. You can also tell us anything else you'd like us to know about you.

Please use this space to:

Give us any further information or continue an answer you haven't had enough room for. If you are continuing an answer, please tell us the number of the question you're giving more information for.

Give us any other information you feel we should know about your financial circumstances. For example, if you have any special needs you have to spend money on for things like special diets and extra heating costs.

Tell us about any changes that may affect you in the near future, for example, if you are about to lose your job or you only receive an income sometimes.

Tell us if you are expecting a child, when your due date is and when you will start any maternity leave.
